Cultural Leadership Summit 2020 - What to Expect?

Organized by HKAAA, the 10th edition of Cultural Leadership Summit “Leveraging Technology for Growth” will be an online event for the first time from 26 – 28 August. The 3-day Summit kicks off with workshops for the first two days and concludes with the symposium. We invite local and overseas speakers to share their views and experience in various topics, such as theatre design with technology tools, audience engagement and development with software, how to deal with structured and unstructured data, government policies and technology etc.

Feature virtual activities including TECH Showcase and Meet the Speaker. These satelliting programmes provided participants to explore and learn from our speakers by viewing the pre-recorded videos or joining a small group to discuss your techno questions closely with the designated speakers!

Public registration will be available from July 27, please stay tuned for full programme and registration details.

ADC Artspace (The Globe) Arts Studio – First Term Tenancy Open for Leasing Application

Hong Kong Arts Development Council (HKADC) now invites qualified local artists and arts organisations to submit application for leasing the studios of ADC Artspace (The Globe) located in Lai Chi Kok.

ADC Artspace (The Globe) provides 4 arts studios. The tenancy term is two years and ten months commencing from November 2020. HKADC will also provide fitting-out allowance for application to carry out basic fitting-out work. This project is part of the “Space Sharing Scheme for Youth” launched by the government and would not have been made possible without the generous sponsorship of Henderson Land Development Company Limited to lease space at concessionary rate to HKADC and the funding support of the Home Affairs Bureau on the operation costs.

Application Deadline: 6:00pm on 29 July 2020 (Wednesday)

[22nd Hong Kong Dance Awards] — 8 Days to go! Online Live-streaming Presentation Ceremony on 18 July

In view of the continuing uncertainty and risk of infection caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the 22nd Hong Kong Dance Awards Presentation Ceremony will be changed from a public event to a closed-door, invitation-only event with live-streaming on social media platforms for free viewing.

“This online Awards ceremony will show how we can embrace the future. It will enable us to honour outstanding achievements in Hong Kong dance and bring the dance community together in celebration after the tough times we’ve been through without any risk.” — Chairperson of Hong Kong Dance Alliance | Shirley Loong

“We’re keeping the ceremony simple while not forgetting how art can heal tired hearts and bring us hope.” — Artistic Director of 22nd Hong Kong Dance Awards | Dominic Wong

Date: 18 July 2020 (Sat)

Time: 8pm

Live-streaming channels: Hong Kong Dance Alliance Facebook Page & YouTube Channel

In addition to the presentations, the event will feature a specially-choreographed performance by four local dance artists with live music from Patrick Ng.

We look forward to having you join us via your screens on 18 July.
