HKAAA Updates

【Highlight Recap】 Essential Guide to Effective Arts Management - Unit 2

As art administrators, we probably all have the experience of organizing outdoor events such as public concerts, exhibitions and street performances. In order to ensure a successful event, what are the law related issues to be considered when planning outdoor events? We are honoured to have Mr Alex Fan (Honorary Legal Counsel of Hong Kong Arts Administrators Association) to be our speaker. Mr Fan discussed the regulations and ordinance related to outdoor events with real case studies. Throughout the lecture, Alex has responded to the participants' concerns as artists and arts organizations, as well as provided us a deeper understanding of what licenses we should apply for in different events accordingly.

This unit went successfully and is well received by arts practitioners from various backgrounds. Once again, HKAAA would like to thank Alex for his inspiring sharing and his enthusiastic participation!

"Beyond the Arts"—An online music and dance performance series of the Hong Kong Jockey Club Music and Dance Fund Awardees Association

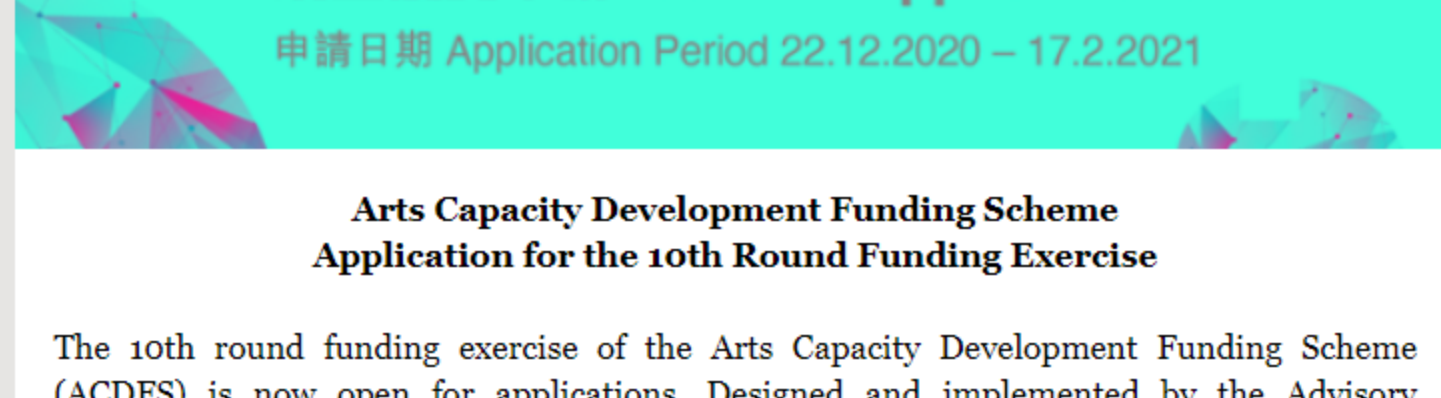

Stage is a birthplace of performers. How could performers overcome the venue restrictions and continue to shine on the "stage" amid the epidemic?

An online music and dance performance series, Beyond the Arts, of the Hong Kong Jockey Club Music and Dance Fund Awardees Association is going to challenge the boundaries of the arts and stage. We will turn the open space of a public estate into a stage, the empty seat of a concert hall into a decorative background, the protective shields into an installation art...

What is a "stage"? Where is the "stage"? Is the "stage" something seen or unseen? You tell.

More than 30 scholarship awardees of the Hong Kong Jockey Club Music and Dance Fund, guest musicians and dance artists co-present Beyond the Arts—an array of music and dance works, including opera, ballet, chamber music and contemporary dance. The performance series will be available on the Association's website, Facebook, YouTube and Instagram every Wednesday starting from 30 December, 2020.

Arts Capacity Development Funding Scheme Application for the 10th Round Funding Exercise

The 10th round funding exercise of the Arts Capacity Development Funding Scheme (ACDFS) is now open for applications. Designed and implemented by the Advisory Committee on Arts Development, the ACDFS calls for application on an annual basis and provides funding support to innovative and impactful proposals that contribute to the objectives of:

- capacity development of arts practitioners, arts groups, art forms and/or the arts sector
- programme/content development
- audience building
- arts education

To promote the convergence of arts and technology, a new category "Arts Technology" is introduced in the 10th round funding exercise of the ACDFS. Applicants are encouraged to present their artistic vision and aspiration through the use of technology in a creative manner. The ACDFS also continues to provide funding support for large-scale and cross-year arts and cultural initiatives and activities, covering various art forms and practices such as performing arts, visual/media arts, multi-disciplinary arts, community arts, arts education/appreciation and arts administration. Eligible applicants may submit applications online, by post or by hand before 6pm on 17 February 2021.
