Job-hunting Strategies (22.05.2021)

What is "Arts Administration"? What qualifications do you need to become an arts administrator? How would you describe the development and prospect of the industry?

To satisfy your curiosity about arts administration, HKAAA has produced a Job-hunting Strategies, which will be available on the Career Fair 2021 platform. It is a useful and handy guide outlining some common interview questions, perfect for fresh graduates and job seekers.

Still have questions? Use the "live chat" function to contact us and we will do our best to answer them!

Hong Kong Dance Company – Grand Original Dance Poem "Shan Shui: An Ode to Nature"

AWaltz of Nature's Timeless Charm
Shan shui (land/landscape) paintings are an important vehicle for art and philosophy in traditional Chinese culture. Through depicting the external environment, artists give expression to the internal human world, revealing the relationship between man and nature.

In this work, Hong Kong Dance Company draws on the image of nature under the brush, painting an inner world beyond the confines of time or space through dance. The dancers' bodies become the brush's dots, dashes and vigorous strokes; they are the artist's eye for rhyme, rhythm and internal beauty.

Sense the power of nature through the body, take in worldly beauty and meditate on the origins of life. Pass through mountains and ever waters, and with a full heart, let the limits of the self and the physical world dissolve.

Calling for M+ Guides Volunteers

Are you passionate about learning and connecting with the public through visual culture? If yes, don't miss the chance to join us as an M+ Guide! You will have the opportunity to explore the M+ collections, to learn from curators and learning practitioners, and to bring our opening exhibitions to life.

We are currently recruiting a new group of M+ Guides for the museum opening. All M+ Guides will receive training between August and October to learn about our exhibitions and facilitation approaches.

Application deadline: 6 June 2021 (Sunday)
